NOTES: Of The September 18th Meeting

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES: Each candidate gave a brief biography. The candidates also gave personal, educational and business background information about themselves. They highlighted their accomplishments and their future intentions.

Those present included Senator Hannon; Assemblyman Tom McKeivitt who took over for Assemblywoman O'Connell; Thomas Adams, a Uniondale High School graduate running for Superior Court Judge; Patricia Doyle running for Family Court Judge; District Terrence Murphy, an army veteran, running for Court Judge; Jane Shrenkel running for District Court Judge; Darlene Harris, also a Uniondale High School graduate, running for Judge and Merik Aaron running for Family Court Judge.

A presentation was also made by Martin Blessinger who is running for Congress.

WEED & SEED: Volunteer Income Tax Assistant (VITA) program will provide computers and access to electronically file IRS papers. The IRS will train and certify senior citizens and youth in E-filing.

Uniondale Community Council (UCC) Youth Project - Exec Director Lorraine Danser: The entire staff is great. The youth projects are up and running. Waiting to hear about the Wednesday night basketball programs at Turle Hook. They presently offer a peer mediation workshop which received great reviews from the District. A volunteer program with St. Jude's Hospital regarding bicycle training will be offered in October. CPAPP is inviting parents of teenagers to participate in discussions about today's issues involving teenagers.

UNITE: Complaints regarding illegal parking in the Wal-Mart parking lot on Jerusalem Ave. Dominoes' property is filthy with filthy garbage spewed around the area. The old gas station on Greengrove Ave is now a parking lot for old cars. UNITE reminded residents to write their Legislature rep to more strictly enforce the Town of Hempstead's codes. The farm stand now has bids for a handicapped ramp. Citizens encouraged to write Tom Suozzi asking for the release of the funds to Glory House and to subscribe to the Beacon, our Town's newspaper.

FIRE REPORT: October is Fire Prevention Month and our fire department will be visiting our schools to remind students about fire safety measures. Handouts will be distributed to take home. Please remember to inspect your boilers before the winter season and have your chimneys cleaned professionally. Also check fireplaces and monitor for carbon monoxide. Our fire department is equipped to test the air in our homes for dangerous levels of carbon monoxide so call if you require assistance. Call LIPA if you see any trees which are dangerously close to live wires. The Uniondale Fire Department is technology ready and trained to deal with emergencies. Please visit the Uniondale Fire Dept's website @ www.uniondalefd.org.
